Alert user of problem being solved. Nambi Hawkins August 13, 2015 Expressions Assignment var weekOne var weekTwo var weekThree var weekFour var weekFive var weekSix var weekSeven var recordedTimes var goal calculate number of pieces of data in array. time find the sum of the numbers in the array races add 1 to the number of items in array to account for missing number, which we are solving for working backwards with average console calculate the goal speed print answer in console Alert user of answer

Alert user that the computer will calculate the second part of the question Calculate sum of all numbers in array excluding the last number calculate number of pieces of data in array from part 1 Subtract 1 from the number of pieces of data in the array from part 1 to exclude the last run calculate Tyler's average race time if he had sat out the last 2 print answer in Alert user of answer